The Dy Commr, Chitaldrug

With refce to this office letter of 3rd July 23 forwards duly renewed the octroi bye laws framed by the Honor municipal Council, Hiriyur & requests that they may be approved by Govt-

(1) Rule refce is marked to the following points

Bye law Rule 3 No person to inspect goods has been left vague as to the names of certain class of municipal officers not below the rank of Amildar & - suggested perhaps it be better to alter as follows 'any person --- Amildar specially authorised for the purpose & empowered to inspect etc"

The bye law as it is altogether

There are no rules laid down to penalise breach of the rules for levy of duty and inspection of goods

Rule 9 This rule provides for the removal of goods ~~parts~~ portions of goods defective This appears to be a persons responsible & may perhaps be avoided

The bye law is altogether

Rule (6) fixes the schedule of rates

NOTE —Contn sheet

Serial No

at which goods left at the central house after a minimum period are charged the charge of 1/pie for 100 betel leaves seems to be heavy as the duty is also 1/pie for 100 leaves But rate to be charged in this case is more or less rent + may perhaps be calculated upon the basis of the bundle A bundle of 50,000 leaves may occupy the same space as 1 maund of dry cocoanuts it may therefore be fixed at 1/pie for 10,00 leaves or less

It is also necessary to fix the maximum period during which goods may be left at the central stores as the perishable articles include perishable betel leaves

Para 3 of rule 14 fixes the minimum for claiming refund at 1Rs- This is perhaps heavy because it will be practically excluding betel leaves from any refund, since in the case of that articles one has to convey always more than 192,00 leaves to be entitled to ask for refund

Municipal file 69 4 , 17 etc Comparing the Excise Bye Laws adopted for Davangere municipality is wrong not up (Class 5)

With the exception of Bye Laws 18 and 20 all those proposed in force in Davangere have been proposed in Holalkere

There are some minor changes and they are indicated in pencil in the draft Bye Laws The substitution of the words 'excise' for the words 'municipal Abkari' in the draft will make the language almost the same

As regards the rates, the rate imposed on piece goods in Davangere is Rs 2-0-0 per cent- while the rate proposed in the draft is only Rs 1-9-0 per cent The other articles are not taxed in Davangere

Rule 5 of draft

Goods exported are exempt from duty- for three days in Davangere while the period is proposed to be fixed at 1 day in the draft Bye Law

Rule 10

From early the period for Davangere export-pass is fixed at three months in the case of Davangere while it is only one month in the case of
